

LABOR OF LOVE

The Life & Times of Harriet L. Keeler

JEN GRAHAM, HISTORICAL INTERPRETER, ROCKY RIVER NATURE CENTER

College Co-ed

“I suspect that Harriet Keeler came to Oberlin because she wanted to match herself with men, and to meet them on their chosen ground.”

Society Hall, Oberlin College

City Livin'

Left: Cleveland
Public Square,
1870s

Right: Central High School,
1880s

Push for Progress

“The demand is everywhere for suffrage, because suffrage is the outward and visible sign of respected citizenship, of self-respect and the power of self-protection; the only means by which entrenched injustice can be successfully attacked and permanently overcome.”

Written Works

MY LOVING COMPANIONS THROUGH
FIELD AND WOOD
THIS VOLUME IS DEDICATED

Final Days

Top:
Adelia Johnston
(1837-1910)

Bottom:
Harriet Keeler
(1846-1921)

In Memoriam

“I have lived an intellectual life for my romance...which has had its outlet in the love and teaching of children, the love of animals and the love of plants.”

“Tell my friends I have died in the midst of flowers.”

- HARRIET L. KEELER, 1921 -

