

Bonnie Park Ecological Restoration and Site Improvement Project

Improve tributary tie-in into East Branch Rocky River

Modify trail to allow natural flow of channel

Provide natural surface trail within park

Convert existing field into wetlands

Lowhead dam removal

Ephemeral swale converted to wetlands

Connect floodplain to pond to provide temporary flood storage

Promote natural flow of drainage under roadway and trail

Provide fishing opportunities adjacent to river

- Impervious surface removal
- New native plant material